SAFEGUARDING TRAINING

With safeguarding being an essential aspect of your role, we can help you keep your knowledge and training up to date with these enhanced tailor made courses.

These courses will be led by Tammie Redman

Tammie is a highly experienced and qualified Safeguarding Trainer and Consultant who Maplefields works with to undertake our comprehensive safeguarding training programme. Tammie has many years' experience of developing, coordinating and delivering safeguarding children training to a multi-agency range of professionals and volunteers from pre-schools, nursery schools, primary/secondary schools, youth groups, police, health organisations (such as GPs), and many more. Having developed and delivered training for Milton Keynes Safeguarding Children Board for over five years she is confident in developing training that meets not only the legal requirements but also what works in practice.
